

AMAL JYOTHI COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING (AUTONOMOUS)
DEPARTMENT OF FOOD TECHNOLOGY

Report of the Program conducted on 19-10-2023

The department of Food Technology & FESTA, in association with IQAC and Games club organized a debate competition on account of celebrating WORLD FOOD DAY.

Please find the details below:

Program title: Debate competition for FT students

Date and Time: 19th October 2023 (Thursday), 3:00 PM

Venue: CC402, Amal Jyothi College of Engineering

Faculty coordinator: Dr. Yedhu Krishnan R

Student coordinators: Irine Varghese, Alen Anna Kurian, & Geethu Menon

Total no: of participants: 24

Event poster:

Event details:

The competition consisted of two separate rounds. 24 individuals in six teams participated in the competition. "Youth migration in Kerala – For or Against" was the subject of the first round of debate. Four teams were eliminated following the initial round. Two teams advanced to the final round, where they debated "Veganism – For or Against"

Melbin Benny, Malvika Mohan, Nandana P, and Lavanya K of S7 emerged as the winners, while Kurian Daniel, Francis Benchamin Joseph, Alex T Manoj, and Noel Siby of S3 emerged as runners up. The winners received a cash award of Rs 500/- and runners up received a cash award of Rs 300/-.

Program photos:

Debate outcomes (DO):

DO 1: Develop excellent oral communication skills.

DO 2: Develop excellent critical thinking skills.

DO 3: Develop effective tools for research, organization and presentation.

DO 4: Develop strategies to overcome fears of public speaking.

Mapping of DO with Program Outcomes (PO):

PO/DO	PO9: Individual and team work:	PO10: Communication:	PO11: Life-long learning:
DO1	1	3	1
DO2	2	1	1
DO3	1	3	1
DO4	1	3	2

Budget:

Head	Expense (Rs)
Prize money (from dept. account- cash in hand)	800

Prepared by:

Dr. Yedhu Krishnan