

REPORT OF THE EVENT CONDUCTED ON 30/06/2022

The dept. of food technology, Amal Jyothi college of Engineering conducted the first meeting of FESTA and Live expert talk on 30th of June 2022 (Thursday) at 2:30 pm noon in Alphonsa Hall.

The guest of honour for the event was Ms. Reshmi Rajan; Nodal Food Safety Officer at the department of Food Safety; Ministry of Health and Family welfare, Government of Kerala.

The event comprised of J R Anoop Raj; Head of the department Food Technology , Program coordinator Ms Arya Krishnan S; Asst. Professor and other faculties Dr.Sunnichan V George, Dr. Yedhu Krishnan, Dr. Swaroop S Kumar, Ms. Joseline Ann Joy, Ms. Subin Emmanel along with second and third year students of Food technology department.

The event commenced with a prayer by the students and the welcome speech was delivered by Dr. J R Anoop Raj. It was followed by the inauguration of the new association for the Food technology students 'FESTA'- Food Engineering Students & Teachers Association by Ms.Reshmi Rajan and Dr. J R Anoop Raj along with the introduction of the executive members.

The Newsletter 'Essence and Flavours' was launched by presenting it to Ms Reshmi Rajan by Dr. Sunnichan V George.

One of the main highlight of the day was the talk given by Ms. Reshmi Rajan on "Public health concerns regarding food safety" based on the theme of world food safety day 2022 comprising of the topics stake holders and shared responsibility of food safety, need of food safety, the role of FSSAI, food borne diseases and Eat right India movement. This was followed by a Q&A session.